SUMMARY

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of West Elgin Community Health Centre (the “Centre”) recognizes that the Centre’s staff and volunteers are its most important resources. As such, the Board is committed to ensuring that the Centre maintains a work environment that recognizes the commitment and dedication of staff and volunteers required to meet the demands of a challenging environment.

PROCEDURE

The Board recognizes that high expectations are placed on the Centre’s staff and volunteers, and as such, is prepared to recognize, within budgetary limitation, their commitment and dedication and superior performance.
